“Peace be with you.”

Have you ever let a friend down? Have you ever been in a crowded room and pretended not to know someone? Have you ever betrayed anyone, in word or deed?

Now place yourself in John’s Gospel. The disciples are locked away, hiding because they were afraid that what happened to Jesus was waiting for them beyond the bolted door. They did “not yet understand” the Resurrection. So imagine their utter shock at seeing Jesus again. Imagine their thoughts. Thoughts of joy intermingled with tremendous guilt and maybe even a tinge of fear. They who had declared loyalty “unto death” couldn’t even make it through an evening in a garden. They couldn’t stand with their friend as he walked to his death. They couldn’t witness his suffering, his own fear, his own despair crying out to his father questioning his “abandonment.” They ran and hid.

What is the first thing Christ says to them? What is the first thing he offers but ... peace. In those four words were the forgiveness and solace and mercy won by the cross. His suffering lived for this very moment and reenacted every... single... time we reach out to mend a fence, heal a rupture, and comfort a friend. Reenacted every time we enter a confessional.

EXPLORE MORE at THE CATHEDRAL!

WELCOME and thank you for joining us. The Cathedral is the Mother Church of the Diocese, and home to many events throughout the year, as well as an award-winning School. Whether you need to update your contact information, or want to register, the process is easy. Registration forms can be found at the Cathedral entrances or you can go to [Registration - Cathedral of St. Thomas More \(cathedralstm.org\)](http://Registration - Cathedral of St. Thomas More (cathedralstm.org))

That the Church recognizes this Sunday as Divine Mercy Sunday reinforces the central component of Jesus’ teachings, the meaning of his life, death and Resurrection. Saint John Paul II who instituted this during his papacy remarked, “As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness, and fear, the Risen Lord offers His love that pardons, reconciles, and reopens hearts to love. It is a love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy!”

We are all disciples called to this mercy; we are all called to forgive and to love. We will have doubts; we will demand proof of God’s mercy as we endure our own trials. I ask you to believe anyway. I ask you to look to those around you for the Risen Christ before you. I ask you to say to those you may have hurt, peace be with you. I ask you to give that peace to yourself.

Thank you to all who made our Holy Week services beautiful expressions of faith and mercy: our lectors, ushers, sacristans, servers, and musicians. As we begin the Cathedral renovations and move to where it all began in Burke Hall, I offer my thanks for your patience and understanding during these next months. We may not be upstairs, but we remain a family of faith; we remain God’s servants first who gather here to give witness to his Divine Mercy.

Reflecting on God's Gifts

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships - with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too - just as God, Our Father, sees us.

All Saints Church Multi Car Raffle returns! April 29th is approaching - Four Vehicles will be raffled along with a $20,000 cash drawing, plus other cash drawings. Lots of chances to win - if you purchase a ticket. With your support, everyone is a winner. Your purchase provides additional financial support for the church and you could win a prize too. Please return your sold and unsold tickets to All Saints by April 25th.

More on.... Saint Anselm of Canterbury

He left his home in Italy to travel as a young man and ended up at the monastery in Bec, France, which was known for the teachings of its leader, Lanfranc. Anselm rose quickly to become abbot of the community and his writings are now compared in importance to those of Saint Augustine.

In 1093 Anselm was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury by William II Rufus, the son and successor of William the Conqueror.

However, at the time there was a controversy in Europe over whether kings or the pope had the power to invest bishops. Anselm, who believed only the pope should have the right to invest an ecclesiastical authority, spent much of his time as Archbishop exiled in Rome.

St. Anselm's teaching and works of theology are his most important contribution to the Catholic faith. He is considered of the fathers of scholastic theology and his chief achievement in philosophy was the ontological argument for the existence of God. His work Cur Deus homo? taught that atonement for sins could only be achieved through Christ. He was canonized in 1494 and named a Doctor of the Church in 1720.

Cathedral Kids Corner

GOSPEL

Jesus gave the power to forgive sins through his apostles. Today the priests are his apostles. They remind us of how God forgives our sins. You have the power to forgive those who hurt you. It is your choice to forgive as Jesus has forgiven you. It is healthy for you to forgive. Anger makes your body tense and your muscles ache. When you forgive others, God sends his love to fill your body and soul with peace.

PRAYER

Lord, help me forgive those who hurt me.

Todos los estudiantes de Educación Media (Grados 6 a 8) están invitados a BASH el Sábado 22 de Abril, de 3pm a 9pm. Este evento Diocesano es en la Escuela Secundaria Bishop O'Connell, pero nos reuniremos y regresaremos de STM. Cientos de estudiantes de todo Virginia se unirán para una tarde de juegos y actividades divertidas, oradores inspiradores, cena, misa y más. El costo es de $10 e incluye la cena y una camiseta. Póngase en contacto con Benjamin Paczak para inscribir a su hijo (a): bpaczak@cathedralstm.org. También necesitamos voluntarios adultos para ayudar a conducir y/o acompañar el evento.
