“Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.”

How is it possible that pretty much everyone who knew Jesus didn’t recognize him after the Resurrection? They ate with him; lived with him; traveled for three years spending countless hours with him. What did the disciples really think the Resurrection would look like? What were their expectations? We scoff at their lack of recognition. We point accusing fingers with a smugness that there would be no way we wouldn’t recognize our Savior. How could we not see him when we know him?

But we fail to recognize him all the time. We get distracted on our own road to Emmaus. Distracted by the mundane and the magnificent. Traffic. The looming deadline that keeps us awake at night. Disagreements and jealousies.

We fail to see him in the joys with which we are blessed and take for granted: the birth of a healthy child. That acceptance letter to a school or job. The storm which never came.

We refuse to see him during times of trial. The death of a spouse or a child. The loss of security, be it financial or our physical well-being. The marriage or friendship gone sour.

We get distracted in prayer. At Mass. At work. Listening to a friend or a spouse share a story, a concern, a fear. The outside world conspires to drive a wedge between us and a right relationship with Jesus; to make him unrecognizable to us.

The Resurrection won our salvation and renewed our kinship with the Father. Made in his “image and likeness” we have the opportunity to witness and to be the witnesses of his mercy; of his compassion; of his love. Open your heart and you will truly see him at work in your life, no matter the journey.

God bless. Fr. Posey

2023 Bishop's Lenten Appeal My soul rejoices in the Lord

Each week we have highlighted various ways the BLA impacts our life of MORE at STM. BLAathome

To date, we are 82% towards our $240,000 goal. We need your help to 100%.

After reflecting upon God's blessings to you, please consider a BLA pledge. Check your mail for a recent letter from Bishop Burbidge. You can also go online to make a donation at: www.arlingtondiocese.org/bla or scan the QR code

THANK YOU!

Reflecting on God's Gifts

"Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?"

Luke 24:32

How often do you take the time to discern what Jesus is calling you to do with your life? Are your prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for you? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time, in silence, to listen to what Jesus is asking of you today.

More on.... Saint Catherine of Siena

Caterina Benincasa was born in Siena on March 25th 1347, the last of 25 children of the wealthy wool-dyer Jacopo Benincasa and Lapa di Puccio de' Piacenti.

At the age of six, Catherine received her first vision, near the Church of San Domenico. From this moment onwards the child began to follow a path of devotion. After initial resistance from her family, at 15 years of age, Catherine donned the black cloak of the Dominican Tertiary sisters. In 1367 she began working tirelessly to help the sick at the hospital of Santa Maria della Scala.

During a visit to the city of Pisa Catherine received the stigmata from a wooden cross hanging in the Church of Santa Cristina. Her many travels abroad to act as mediator for the Papacy included a trip to Avignon, where she urged Pope Gregory to bring the Papal Court back to Rome from its exile in France.

On returning to Siena, Catherine founded the Monastery of Santa Maria degli Angeli in the castle of Belcaro. With the death of Pope Gregory XI in 1378, his successor Urban VI had to face strong opposition from a number of cardinals who had elected a second Pope with the name of Clement VII, thereby provoking what would later come to be termed the Great Schism of the West. Pope Urban VI called on Catherine to act as mediator.

She died in 1380, was canonized in 1461 by Pope Pius III and was named a Doctor of the Church in 1970. Pope Saint John Paul II proclaimed her co-patron of Europe in 1999.
