Our Gospel today recounts the familiar image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. We see Christ as not only the loving caretaker, but the very vehicle to salvation. He is at once guide and “gate.” Through a truly personal relationship with Him we are led to our salvation. How do we attain and nurture this relationship? How do we nurture any relationship that is important to us?

By being present. By spending time with the other person. We choose our friends because we have things in common; we enjoy their company; we can rely upon them. A real and lasting relationship is built upon shared experiences. In today’s world this is becoming increasingly more difficult.

It is no secret that I am rather fond of gadgets, especially those with an Apple embossed on them. And while they can make my life easier (I can check my ‘steps’ and heart-rate to ensure I’m exercising enough; I can even turn off the lights in my office if I forget and am away from the rectory), they can also pull me away from the here and now. I am no different than many of us: it’s easy to get lost in mindlessly scrolling the latest newspaper articles. Yet there is no substitute for personal presence, in actually speaking with a long-lost friend instead of “liking” a recent post. Prayer itself takes on a different focus when offered with others.

I ask you to try a day, or even a few hours, to devote yourself to some “electronics- free” time. Encourage family members to do the same. Spend that time focused on those people right in front of you. Take some of that time to get to know our Good Shepherd. Bring your cares to Him; allow yourself to get to know Him just as well as He knows you. Start the conversation.

Today is World Prayer Day for vocations. Please ask the Lord to open the ears and hearts to those men and women to “hear his voice” in discernment. So too, please pray for all priests, sisters, brothers and deacons that they may continue to live out their calling with kindness, mercy and compassion.

God bless. Fr. Posey

Stewardship

The Second Collection this week will be the Catholic Home Missions. Did you know that nearly 40% of U.S. dioceses need help with essential pastoral services? These include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Your support strengthens the Church at home. Thank you for your kindness.

Thank you for your support. Please scan the QR code or go to <https://membership.faithdirect.net/VA326>

Next week's Second Collection will be for our Maintenance Fund. Thank you for your stewardship of our Cathedral and School buildings.

Reflecting on God's Gifts

"And Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ..." Acts 2:38

The word "repent" means to turn from sin - to change our thoughts, words and actions. Change that is permanent comes from within - a transformation or conversion of heart. This requires prayer, discipline and perseverance. Change is hard. The first step is recognizing that we are broken and that we need God's help. The good news - we are not alone in our journey. Ask Jesus daily for guidance and patiently listen for his response.

Mass Intentions

Because we have additional weekend Masses to accommodate seating in Burke Hall and the School Gym, there are now more opportunities to honor your loved one with an intention. Please contact the Rectory to schedule a Mass intention: 703-525-1300.

Join us to pray the Rosary! All are invited to gather daily at 11:40am, before the 12:05pm Mass. We also have a special Pro Life Rosary the third Saturday of every month after the 9:00am Mass. Our Knights also host a rosary every third Sunday at 6:30pm before the 7:00pm Mass.

More on.... Genuflecting & Kneeling

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar. ©LPI
