Easter 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our Lord is risen! The Light of the world has conquered the darkness and provided for us the opportunity for life with him, now and forever. After a long, challenging year, we now joyfully celebrate the Lord's Resurrection and are renewed and strengthened by the hope he imparts.

I pray that each of you is able to embrace fully this sacred season of Our Lord's victory over suffering and death. Despite the pandemic and the other difficulties brought into our lives over the past year, we have reason to rejoice! Our Lord loves us and, in faithful obedience to the Father, offered the ultimate sacrifice on our behalf, so that we might have eternal life with him in heaven with the saints and the angels.

At the start of Lent, on Ash Wednesday, I preached about a fundamental virtue for those pursuing a close relationship with God: humility. St. Augustine famously wrote, "If you should ask me what are the ways of God, I would tell you that the first is humility, the second is humility, and the third is humility. Not that there are no other precepts to give, but if humility does not precede all that we do, our efforts are fruitless." God alone has the power to conquer death and give new life in him. Our joy should be rooted in humbly acknowledging that the salvation won by Christ is freely offered to us. Death and resurrection are gifts freely offered, and we must rely upon his infinite mercy to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

In our lives, we experience happiness as well as sorrow, and if we unite our joys and sufferings to Christ's, he will lead us to share in his victory and the glory of his Resurrection. Thus, may we celebrate the blessings of Easter with a humble and grateful heart!

May the peace of the risen Lord, the Light of the world, be with you in this Easter season and always.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

Pascua de 2021

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

¡Nuestro Señor ha resucitado! La Luz del mundo ha conquistado las tinieblas y nos ha dado la oportunidad de vivir con Él, ahora y siempre. Después de un año largo y difícil, ahora celebramos con alegría la Resurrección del Señor y estamos renovados y fortalecidos por la fe que Él imparte.

Ruego que cada uno de ustedes pueda acoger plenamente esta santa temporada de victoria de Nuestro Señor sobre el sufrimiento y la muerte. A pesar de la pandemia y de las demás dificultades que afectaron nuestra vida el año pasado, ¡tenemos motivos para regocijarnos! Nuestro Señor nos ama y, en fiel obediencia al Padre, ofreció el último sacrificio en nombre nuestro para que pudiéramos tener vida eterna con Él en el Cielo en compañía de los santos y los ángeles.

Al comienzo de la Cuaresma, el Miércoles de Ceniza, prediqué sobre una virtud fundamental para quienes buscan tener una estrecha relación con Dios: la humildad. San Agustín nos dijo estas palabras en sus famosos escritos: “Si me preguntaran cuáles son los caminos de Dios, les diría que el primero es humildad, el segundo es humildad y el tercero es humildad. No es que falten otros preceptos, pero si la humildad no precede todo lo que hacemos, nuestros esfuerzos serán infructuosos”. Solo Dios tiene el poder de vencer la muerte y de dar nueva vida en Él. Nuestra alegría debe estar arraigada en el humilde reconocimiento de que la salvación lograda por Cristo se nos ofrece gratuitamente. La muerte y la resurrección son dones que se nos ofrecen gratuitamente y debemos confiar en su infinita misericordia para entrar en el Reino de los Cielos.

En nuestra vida experimentamos felicidad y dolor y si unimos nuestras alegrías y penas a las de Cristo, Él nos llevará a compartir su victoria y la gloria de su Resurrección. Por lo tanto, celebremos las bendiciones de la Pascua con un corazón humilde y agradecido.

Que la paz del Señor Resucitado, la Luz del mundo, esté con ustedes en esta temporada de Pascua y siempre.

Fielmente en Cristo,

Monseñor Michael F. Burbidge
Obispo de la Diócesis de Arlington

Understanding the Triduum:
Holy Saturday and Easter

Easter Vigil 8:30pm

“Mother of all vigils.” This is St. Augustine’s name for tonight, a name that conveys how the church cherishes this night that is different from any other. A vigil is a night watch: people who would normally be home resting are awake, gathered in expectation, waiting for news. We wait in a great company, as Christians around the world keep watch. Nothing is ordinary about this evening we spend together. The Vigil is long and full. It begins outside with Fire, kindled in the presence of our elect, our candidates and those who accompany them. The Paschal Candle is ignited from that fire and carried into the darkened church where all our candles are lit from that flame.

We hear the EXSULTET – THE EASTER PROCLAMATION. This is the night when Christ broke the bonds of death and rose victorious from the grave. In the light of the Easter candle, we listen to God’s Word, the story of our salvation. Women and men from our assembly come, one after another, to proclaim the Word.

Readings announce how God saves His people throughout history, pursuing us with unrelenting affection. These stories take time to tell and to savor, and call us to respond in psalm and in prayer. The Gloria sounds again after Lenten silence, and the Alleluia. Lights are thrown on. Bells ring. Led to faith by God’s Word and by God’s people. Water is blessed and poured over catechumens. They are wrapped in the white garment of Christ’s life and are given the new light of Christ. Called to remember and renew our own baptism, we stand to embrace the saving waters. We acclaim our candidates as they reaffirm their baptism and, with the newly baptized, are sealed and confirmed with the oil of chrism. The congregation is sprinkled with Holy Water and together reaffirm their own baptismal promises. Together we encounter the Risen Lord in the Eucharist. The “Mother of all Vigils” unites the Catholic family, enriches our faith, and gives us the grace to be “fishers of men.”

The Great Sunday, the Feast of Fifty Days begins!

The fifty days from Easter to Pentecost are celebrated as one feast day, The Great Sunday. We are reborn, renewed, and rejuvenated in the light of the Pascal candle: our faith ready to “shine before men. That they may see the good that we do and give glory to God.”

He is Risen and We are Risen to New Life!

“To celebrate Easter is to believe once more that God constantly breaks into our personal histories, challenging our “conventions”, those fixed ways of thinking and acting that end up paralyzing us. To celebrate Easter is to allow Jesus to triumph over the craven fear that so often assails us and tries to bury every kind of hope.” Pope Francis
