Vincent Ferrer Bagan, O.P., Director of Music music@cathedralstm.org	The second letter of Saint Peter drives home an important point: The stories of Jesus, which Peter handed on to his flock, and which are handed on to us today, are not made up. They are REAL. If you've ever seen something amazing and told someone about it, and then they tell someone else, eventually, someone may begin to wonder: Did this really happen? Or is it just a tall tale? But you, the one who SAW it happen, know that it is true. Peter is telling us just that. He and the two other disciples WITNESSED Jesus' majesty revealed to them on Mount Tabor. In that moment, while our Lord was in prayer (Lk 9:29), the veil of His humanity was drawn back, revealing the glory of His divinity. Imagine waking up from sleep, as the disciples did (9:32), and seeing Jesus in this way! Mark tells us they were "struck with fear," causing Peter to speak automatically, without even knowing what he said (Mk 9:5).
EXPLORE MORE at THE CATHEDRAL! WELCOME and thank you for joining us. The Cathedral is the Mother Church of the Diocese, and home to many events throughout the year, as well as an award-winning School. Whether you need to update your contact information, or want to register, the process is easy. Registration forms can be found at the Cathedral entrances or you can go to Registration - Cathedral of St. Thomas More (cathedralstm.org)  Follow us on:  facebook.com/CathedralSTMVA  @CathedralSTMVA /Twitter  instagram.com/cathedralstmva	The full revelation is made when the voice from the cloud says: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him" (Mt 17:5). This strikes such fear in the three apostles that they fall on their faces (17:6), for no one can see the face of God and live (Ex 33:20). Jesus is the Son of God, before all ages and through all ages. He is one with the Father. He is God. Peter is emphatic about this in his second letter because it is not HIS idea that Jesus is the Son of God. Rather, it is the revelation of God Himself! Jesus, veiling His glory again, comforts His apostles and tells them to keep these things secret until after His Resurrection (Mt 17:7-9). Jesus is the eternal Word of the Father, through Whom and in Whom all things were created (Col 1:16). When we hear Jesus, we hear the Word of God. Let us, like the apostles, heed the Father's command, and listen to His Son! God Bless.

Stewardship

The Second Collection this weekend is for the Mission Cooperative Plan in Banica. Father Posey will speak about this appeal which helps our brothers and sisters who do not have access to basic pastoral services that support and grow their faith, like Mass, the sacraments, religious education as well as basic needs – like food, shelter, and healthcare. Father was a missionary in Banica for eight years and as the Diocese Missions Director, continues to be involved in the efforts of the men and women who bring the Good News of the Lord.

Please make your check payable to STM with “MCP” in the memo line. Please scan the QR code or go to <https://membership.faithdirect.net/VA326>

Next week the Second Collection will be for our Parish Charities. Thank you for your generous support.

Reflecting on God's Gifts

“...then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.'” - Matthew 17:5

When Peter, James and John heard this they immediately fell prostrate to the ground and they “were very much afraid.” We, too, may respond the same way when we hear God's voice. How many times do you become fearful when invited to participate more fully in the life of the Church? Or, when someone says something negative about the Church, are you afraid to respond? Remember, we too, are beloved sons and daughters of God; Jesus is there to help us, but we need to listen.

Summer Gleaning "Gleaning" is the traditional biblical practice of gathering crops that would otherwise be left in the fields to rot, or be plowed under after harvest. Help Catholic Charities to support pantries within our Diocese receive fresh foods through your support. Saturday, August 19, from 8-11am in the Northern Neck at Parker Farms, 1647 Kings Hwy, Colonial Beach, VA 22443 and/or 1-3 p.m. at the Manassas Warehouse 8426 Kao Circle, Manassas, VA 20110. For more information, please contact Volunteer Coordinator at maria.rodriquez@ccda.net.

Volunteer Teachers Urgently Needed!

Help teach adult refugees and immigrants in your community! Catholic Charities, Diocese of Arlington, is seeking teachers and co-teachers for ESOL (English to Speakers of Other Languages), Citizenship, GED, Computer Literacy and ESOL for Childcare. We are accepting volunteers for in-person classes and online! In person classes are in Manassas, Sterling, Springfield, and Falls Church. Online classes also available. We provide training, curriculum, and resources. No second language necessary! If interested, call the Education and Workforce Development office at 571-208-1572, email us at ewd@ccda.net.

Are you looking to get more involved at the Cathedral? You can find MORE by volunteering at the Cathedral. With additional Masses on our schedule during construction, we are in need of more assistance as Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, Sacristans, and ushers. To avoid overburdening our current volunteers, please consider sharing your time in service to others. We will work with you to get you trained as soon as possible. Thank you for your commitment to our parish.

View opportunities at www.cathedralstm.org or contact the Office at 703-525-1300.

Looking for a way to help others from home? Partners in Prayer volunteers set aside time each day to pray for their intentions. No meetings are required. Volunteers pray a rosary together weekly (via Zoom). To join, see the Partners in Prayer page on the Cathedral website under Parish Life/Ministries. If you have any questions, please call Peter Hickman at 703-528-0297 or loyalscout@hotmail.com

Relax! Your stewardship of STM can continue while you're on vacation. (And when you return!)

Have an unused crib in your basement? Project Rachel is looking for a crib to be used to accept donations.

Gabriel Project is a pro-life apostolate of the Diocese of Arlington to help pregnant women in need of assistance. Last year, our parish helped three women and their newborns. Here is Sebastian, one of the precious babies born last year. When we delivered the baby gifts from our parish, prayed with the mom, and accompanied her to other centers for resources, she was touched and had tears in thanksgiving to God and for generosity of people like you. She asked, "How is this possible?" Volunteering with Gabriel Project is an enriching experience as you become the hands and feet of Jesus. You are truly making a difference in someone's life under difficult times. Please let us know if you would like to join in this effort.

Diaper Drive: This August-September, we are collecting diapers and baby wipes for the moms whom our parish are helping. Help us fill the crib with these baby necessities!

Peer companions: "Angels" offer emotional and spiritual support as they walk along with expectant moms. Training and resources are provided.

Pray: Most importantly, please pray for the Gabriel Project and Respect Life ministry. Contact May Respicio for more information: mrespicio2@yahoo.com.

SAVE THE DATE! OKTOBERFEST RETURNS! October 14, 2023 6:00-8:00pm

Neither rain nor heat, nor construction shall keep us from our appointed date with parish fun. Join us for our most popular parish event for food, games, rides and MORE!

If you're interested in helping, contact Tara Quaadman at tquaadman@cathedralstm.org

Reflecting More on: Servant of God Nicholas Black Elk

Black Elk was born in December of 1863 into the Oglala Lakota people to a family with a long history of working as medicine men and healers. He grew up in present-day South Dakota and Wyoming and was the second cousin of Lakota war leader Crazy Horse.

Following a severe illness in his childhood where it is reported that he lay motionless and unresponsive for several days, Black Elk frequently had spiritual visions. In his first vision, during that period of illness, he witnessed kind and loving spirits that he interpreted to be Thunder Beings — wise and revered spirits like grandparents — who implored him to help save his people from the settlers destroying their way of life. As he shared these visions, the other healers in his community were astonished.

He became a spiritual and physical healer among the Lakota, often using song as a healing element. He took his visions seriously and, after experiencing the decimation of the population of wild buffalo by white settlers, and his people being forcibly confined to reservations, he witnessed the great suffering being forced upon his community by colonizing forces. In response, he fought in the Battle of Little Big Horn as well as in the Wounded Knee Massacre in 1890, being grazed by a bullet to the hip during the battle. The violence at Wounded Knee was, partially, in response to the Plains tribe's interest in Black Elk's Ghost Dance Movement. He developed the Ghost Dance to bring a message of hope to his people — that the invaders would leave, the buffalo would return, and the systematic destruction of their culture would soon end.

He recovered from his injuries and went on to live at the Pine Ridge Reservation. There, he married his first wife, Katie, a Lakota Catholic convert, and they had three children — all were baptized Catholic. After Katie died in 1903, Black Elk also converted and took on the additional name, Nicholas. He eventually remarried and had more children, baptizing and raising them all Catholic.

Black Elk's cause of sainthood was opened in 2017 and he is officially recognized as a Servant of God for his life's work of harmonizing his Catholic faith with his Lakota culture and bringing hundreds to the faith. He is buried at the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

August 15 is the Feast of the Assumption of Mary and is a Holy Day of Obligation. There will be a Vigil Mass at 6:00pm, Monday August 14. Masses on Tuesday will be at 7:00am, 12:05pm with Bishop Burbidge, 6:00pm (English) and 7:00pm Spanish.

Cathedral Kids Corner

GOSPEL

Previews give us a quick peek at a movie, in hopes that we will want to see more. In today's Gospel, we celebrate Jesus' Transfiguration. That's when God gave Peter, James and John a preview of the risen Jesus, the Jesus they would see again one day. Jesus glowed brightly. Moses and Elijah came to talk with Jesus. Then a great cloud covered everyone, and God said Jesus was his Son. Jesus was the Savior that God's people had been waiting for.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for showing us through your Word that Jesus is our Savior. Amen.

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET Join the STM Divine Mercy Group to pray the Chaplet on weekdays after the conclusion of the 12:05pm Daily Mass. Please remember that Burke Hall must be vacated by 1:00pm to allow for construction to resume. Thank you.

Join us to pray the Rosary! All are invited to gather daily at 11:40am, before the 12:05pm Mass. We also have a special Pro Life Rosary the third Saturday of every month after the 9:00am Mass. Our Knights also host a rosary every third Sunday at 6:30pm before the 7:00pm Mass.

JOIN OUR GROWING LIST OF SPONSORS

IT'S ALMOST TIME!

As you get ready for the new school year, and the necessary back to school purchases, put uniform shopping at the top of your (extensive) list.

Our Flynn O'Hara rep is encouraging families to shop sooner rather than later. They prepared for the back to school rush by having more in stock this year - but if you're unable to find what you need in store, shopping now ensures that your items will ship/arrive prior to the first day.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/ EDUCACIÓN RELIGIOSA

Registration for the 2023-2024 school year has begun. Please remember that Religious Ed is an every-year learning experience, just like school your child attends daily. There is something new to learn in every grade with opportunities to grow in the faith. Find the signup form on our website.

Volunteer Catechists are needed to teach Religious Education. Lesson plans and workbooks are provided and you have the full support of the Faith Formation office leading you throughout the year along with fellow Catechists and classroom aids. Share your faith and give back to the Church with this rewarding opportunity to shape the lives of the next generation of the Church. Email Benjamin at BPaczak@CathedralSTM.org for more information. This is a great opportunity for high schoolers to volunteer and get service hours as a classroom aide.

Matrícula para el año escolar 2023-2024 ya se inicio. Por favor recuerde que las clases de Educación Religiosa es un aprendizaje de cada año, así como las clases académicas que su hij@ asiste a diario. Hay algo nuevo que aprender en cada grado con oportunidad de crecer en la fe. Visite nuestro sitio web, ahora tenemos una opción en Español donde puede encontrar los formatos de matrícula en su idioma y enlace de pago.

Se necesitan Catequistas voluntarios para el programa de Educación Religiosa. Se proporcionan planes de lecciones y libros de trabajo y usted cuenta con el apoyo total de la oficina de Formación de Fe que lo guiará durante todo el año junto con otros catequistas y ayudantes en el aula. Comparta su fe y retribuya a la Iglesia con esta gratificante oportunidad de dar forma a la vida de la próxima generación de la Iglesia. Envíe un correo electrónico a Benjamin a BPaczak@CathedralSTM.org para obtener más información. Esta es una oportunidad genial para que los estudiantes de secundaria se ofrezcan como voluntarios y obtengan horas de servicio como asistentes en el salón de clases.

Mass for Multicultural Communities 2023

Celebrate our unity in diversity! All are invited to the annual Mass for Multicultural Communities celebrated by Bishop Michael Burbidge, con-celebrated by priests of The Diocese of Arlington. The Mass celebration will be held at Nativity Catholic Church, Burke VA at 7 p.m. on Friday, August 25, 2023. Following the Mass, there will be a reception featuring cultural dishes and performances!

The reception is free for all. Mass attendees are encouraged to wear cultural attire if desired. There is no registration required. If you would like to participate in the Marian Procession and would like more information, please contact mcm@arlingtondiocese.org with any questions

Multicultural Cookbook

Everyone is invited to submit their favorite recipe to be considered for the diocesan cookbook, "Gather at the Table: Multicultural Cooking for Liturgical Living," which will strive to highlight as many cultures found within our diocese. This cookbook is being made in conjunction with the Diocese of Arlington's Golden Jubilee.

Visit www.arlingtondiocese.org/jubilee-gather-at-the-table for more details on this project and to submit your recipe.

Please contact The Office of Multicultural Ministries at mcm@arlingtondiocese.org with questions.

Did you know there are 11 churches in the Diocese which are named for Our Lady? During this second year of preparation for the Diocesan Golden Jubilee, we are all encouraged to focus upon Mary and her role in pointing us to Jesus. To this end, Bishop Burbidge has invited all of us to visit as many of those 11 churches as possible and spend time in prayer at each! For more information visit www.arlingtondiocese.org/jubileejourney/
