From Our Rector

Epiphany Sunday closes an important circle: Christ, the Savior, has taken on our human form. Revealed first to the Jews (the shepherds), he is now presented to the visiting Magi, the wise men from Persia. Christ has come for all, Gentile as well as Jew. This distinction foreshadows Jesus' message in his ministry: "I have other sheep, which are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will hear My voice; and they will become one flock with one shepherd." John 10:16

The Magi are us. Waiting. Hoping for the "King of Kings." Now, hopes are fulfilled. The Christ has been born. We know the rest. Let us move on. For many of us, Epiphany signals an end; the end to our Advent and Christmas seasons. The tree sheds its final needles, the Bûche de Noël cake is long gone, and even the heartiest of Christmas-song lovers begin to tire of Bing Crosby. For some, it's almost a relief: no more hustle and bustle, no more rush to get presents, cards, food. This year in particular, the pressure was on to make this "the best holiday ever." Two years apart for many, this is the year! "It was nice, but thank goodness that's over."

But my sisters and brothers, the Epiphany is not an end but a start – the beginning of our salvation. Christ's birth leads to our rebirth as children of God. Along with resolutions to eat better, read more, show kindness and patience more, we should resolve to know Christ more; to allow Him into our daily lives and not just on special occasions. Make time for Him in prayer; show His impact on your life through your actions. Allow the "epiphany" that you are loved, that you are saved by His grace and sacrifice to remain in your heart throughout the year.

Thank you to everyone who made our Christmas celebrations joyful expressions of God's love for us. The decorations beautified our Church; the carols and hymns filled our surroundings as well as our hearts with the glory of our God. I am grateful for our facilities crew who care for this sacred space, our ushers who welcome all; and our liturgical ministers who bring God's word and His Body to our ears and our souls. Special thanks to Melissa Thierry, Larry Cerrutti, Neal Collins, Rick Gibala, Nicole Elledge and our choirs. Thank you as well to everyone who dropped off Christmas treats to the rectory; they were much appreciated.

God Bless. Fr. Posey

Stewardship

The Second Collection is for our Parish Charities. Please be generous as we care for those in our community. Please scan the QR code or go to www.membership.faithdirect.net/va326

You can also mail your gift or place it in the Offertory basket.

2021 Tax statements will be mailed by the end of January. Contact the Rectory Office with questions.

"...They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh."* (Matthew 2:11)

What gifts do you give to the Lord? Pope St. Gregory said that these three gifts represent what we should give God every day. Gold - we should reflect Christ's wisdom in all our relationships. Frankincense - represents our daily prayer and adoration to God. Myrrh - is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.
