Vincent Ferrer Bagan, O.P., Director of Music music@cathedralstm.org	One of the articles of the Creed, which we profess each Sunday at Mass, is the Resurrection of the Body and the Life Everlasting. This life is a journey, a pilgrimage, to heaven. It is there that our true home awaits. We cannot make this journey by our own strength; we need grace to sustain us on the way. Through the sacraments, the Church offers us sure access to the grace of Jesus Christ, which He won for us on Calvary. We should never presume to receive His grace apart from the sacraments, because He left them as a way for us to receive His grace with certainty. We should also never presume that we can wait to receive the sacraments until the last minute, for as our Lord tells us, "You do not know the day nor the hour" (Mt 25:13). This is why Mass on Sundays is mandatory, and frequent confession, at least once per month, is highly encouraged. When someone faces a serious illness, a surgery, or danger of death, the Church provides us with special Sacraments. Our priests go to the sick for Confession and Anointing of the Sick, which is a special preparation for death. A priest can also offer the Apostolic pardon, which does not replace confession - one must make a good confession to receive forgiveness for mortal sins - but it does remove all temporal punishment due to sin, which Confession and Anointing do not do. Confession and Anointing of the Sick can be repeated, but they can only be administered to a person who is living. Every week, we have a Deacon and Extraordinary Ministers who can bring Holy Communion to the sick. Each parish has an emergency line to reach a priest, but it is better to call on the earlier side, rather than risk being too late. If you or someone you know is seriously ill or about to undergo surgery, you can call the parish to receive visits from a priest and weekly Holy Communion. It is important to prepare for eternity! God Bless. Deacon Sean Nypaver

Stewardship

The Second Collection this weekend is for our Altar Server Program. Your generosity is a blessing and very much appreciated! Please scan the QR code or go to <https://membership.faithdirect.net/VA326>

Next week the Second Collection will be for our Maintenance Fund. Your support enables us to care for our beautiful campus as well as meet any unforeseen expenses which may arise. Thank you!

Are you looking to get more involved at the Cathedral? You can find MORE by volunteering at the Cathedral. With additional Masses on our schedule during construction, we are in need of more assistance as Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, Sacristans, and ushers. To avoid overburdening our current volunteers, please consider sharing your time in service to others. We will work with you to get you trained as soon as possible. Thank you for your commitment to our parish.

View opportunities at www.cathedralstm.org or contact the Office at 703-525-1300.

Join the Flock! Don't miss important announcements, mass reminders and faith resources from Flocknote, our parish email provider. Now more than ever, we need our parish family. This is a great tool for ministry leaders to communicate with their volunteers as well! Sign up at <https://cathedralstm.flocknote.com/> or text keyword "STM Cathedral" to 84576

Looking for a way to help others from home? Partners in Prayer volunteers set aside time each day to pray for their intentions. No meetings are required. Volunteers pray a rosary together weekly (via Zoom). To join, see the Partners in Prayer page on the Cathedral website under Parish Life/Ministries. If you have any questions, please call Peter Hickman at 703-528-0297 or loyalscout@hotmail.com

Reflecting on God's Gifts

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit."

Matthew 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are virtues that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.

Summer Gleaning "Gleaning" is the traditional biblical practice of gathering crops that would otherwise be left in the fields to rot, or be plowed under after harvest. Help Catholic Charities to support pantries within our Diocese receive fresh foods through your support. Saturday, August 19, from 8-11am in the Northern Neck at Parker Farms, 1647 Kings Hwy, Colonial Beach, VA 22443 and/or 1-3 p.m. at the Manassas Warehouse 8426 Kao Circle, Manassas, VA 20110. For more information, please contact Volunteer Coordinator at maria.rodriguez@ccda.net.

Volunteer Teachers Urgently Needed!

Help teach adult refugees and immigrants in your community! Catholic Charities, Diocese of Arlington, is seeking teachers and co-teachers for ESOL (English to Speakers of Other Languages), Citizenship, GED, Computer Literacy and ESOL for Childcare. We are accepting volunteers for in-person classes and online! In person classes are in Manassas, Sterling, Springfield, and Falls Church. Online classes also available. We provide training, curriculum, and resources. No second language necessary! If interested, call the Education and Workforce Development office at 571-208-1572, email us at ewd@ccda.net.

Cathedral Renovation Updates

CHANGE IS COMING TO THE CATHEDRAL

Did you see the article in the Catholic Herald? Inside you'll learn more about the beautiful renovations in store for our Cathedral. Hear from our Bishop, Father Posey, and others as they detail what's to come. Read MORE here: <https://bit.ly/3Pc2iMP>

Thank you to those who provided meatloaves for Christ House last month. Your kindness is much appreciated, especially by those most in need. Our next turn at serving is August 31st. If you can donate, please drop off your cooked meatloaf to the Rectory by 3:00pm on Wednesday, August 30. Thank you!

Volunteer Opportunity! Are you creative? Do have experience with Publisher and Adobe programs? Are you good with deadlines? The Cathedral is looking for a detail-oriented person to compile the weekly bulletin—one of the most important ways we communicate with our parishioners and community. You will work closely with the Director of Advancement who will train you. The time commitment is approximately (6) hours a week

This is something you can do at home!

Contact Christine Hughes at chughes@cathedralstm.org for more information.

Youth Group

All middle school and high school students (grades 7-12) are invited on a Kings Dominion trip on July 26, and the whole family can come. Email Benjamin Paczak at BPaczak@CathedralSTM.org or fill out this form for more

Cathedral Young Adults

Summer Events & MORE!

All young adults are invited to brunch after the 9:30 Mass on July 16 in the school cafeteria. Please bring a dish or drink to share, or just come and join us in fellowship.

Deacon Nypaver is leading the young adults in a three-week long Bible study on the Book of Romans. Join us in the school library (the auxiliary building in the parking lot) on Tuesday, July 18, at 7pm. Please read Romans chapters 1-4 ahead of time if able.

Join the young adults on a hike as Deacon Nypaver leads us through Manassas Battlefield Park on Saturday, July 29, after the 9:00am mass. Bring your own lunch (and boots that can get muddy). We will return by 3:00pm

Check out the Young Adult Facebook Page for up to the minute details on events.

Mass Intentions

Because we have additional weekend Masses to accommodate seating in Burke Hall and the School Gym, there are now more opportunities to honor your loved one with an intention. Please contact the Rectory to schedule a Mass intention: 703-525-1300.

Please note that we are unable to livestream Masses during the construction. Thank you for your patience and understanding. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Reflecting More on: Catholic Life

Why do we use incense at Mass?

The use of incense in religious ceremonies and worship is a practice that predates Christianity, and which is also found in many other religious traditions today.

Incense, which is made from resin infused with aromatic spices and oils, is one of those fundamentally human symbols that incorporates more than one of our senses, helping us to reflect on realities that transcend the everyday details of our lives.

The use of incense in the Church's liturgy — in the Mass, as well as in devotions to the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours — is inspired by the use of incense in the Jewish tradition. In the writings of the Old Testament, we hear about incense being used in the worship of the temple, and Psalm 141 asks, "Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering" (vs. 2). The image here is that, as the incense gently rises to heaven, our prayers also rise to God as something sweet and pleasant.

Another ancient use of incense that has also become part of our Catholic tradition is the idea that when we incense something, it's because it is something special or sacred. This is why the Book of the Gospel is incensed during the Liturgy of the Word and the bread, wine, priest celebrant, and congregation are incensed at the presentation of the gifts. To this, we can also add the incensing of the Blessed Sacrament during eucharistic adoration and benediction, and the body of the deceased at the end of the Mass of the Resurrection (the Funeral Mass). ©LPi

St. Mary Magdalene: Feast Day July 22

Present to Jesus' public ministry, death, and resurrection, St. Mary Magdalene is one of the most important figures in the New Testament and indeed was one of the first to witness the Resurrection.

Carrying seven demons inside her before Christ cast them out, Mary devoted her life as a disciple of the Lord. Legend states that she might have made it to France after being exiled for her faith.

Seniors Silent Retreat: Isn't it a challenge, living in the midst of our 'throwaway culture,' for those who are 'full of years,' to understand our place in the world -- and in our Church? Join Fr. John Riley, Spiritual Director at San Damiano, from Friday-Sunday, July 21-23, 2023, as we search the Scriptures, pray with Jesus in the Gospels, and consider the Crosses and the Consolations of Old Age. Retreat cost is $285, and financial assistance may be available. For further information or to register for this retreat, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org.

After Abortion Retreat, Day of Prayer and Healing

Saturday, July 29. These group healing events are held in a private and peaceful setting, based on the Entering Canaan model. There will be an opportunity to hear from a past participant and others who have found healing. For confidential inquiries, please contact Project Rachel Ministry: (703) 841-2504 info@helpafterabortion.org.

Did you know there are 11 churches in the Diocese which are named for Our Lady? During this second year of preparation for the Diocesan Golden Jubilee, we are all encouraged to focus upon Mary and her role in pointing us to Jesus. To this end, Bishop Burbidge has invited all of us to visit as many of those 11 churches as possible and spend time in prayer at each! For more information visit www.arlingtondiocese.org/jubileejourney/

All current college students and high school students (class of 2023) are invited to join the Catholic Patriots of George Mason University every Thursday in the months of June and July from 7-9 p.m. at the Chapel for faith, fun, and fellowship. 4515 Roberts Road, Fairfax, VA. Follow us on Instagram @catholic.patriot or go to gmuccm.org for more information.

Parishes throughout the Diocese will hold the Forty Hours Devotion throughout the year. The celebration is part of the Diocesan-wide preparation for the Golden Jubilee in 2024. For a listing of parish dates, go to:

Binvenido Padre Barnes! Padre Barnes viene de la Iglesia Santa Teresa en Ashburn. Nacido en Denver, Colorado, Padre Barnes asistió a la Escuela Secundaria Paul VI en Chantilly, Virginia. Se graduó de la Universidad de Virginia(UVA). Fue ordenado en 2013; su primera asignación fue en la Basílica de Santa María en Alexandria. Es fanático del equipo de baloncesto de UVA, los Nationals (baseball) y los Commanders (fútbol Americano)

Bienvenido a nuestro nuevo Diácono de Transición, Sean Nypaver. Diácono Nypaver nos compartió lo siguiente: Durante mi estadía en Guatemala, experimenté la amabilidad de la gente de allí, la belleza de sus iglesias y la cultura católica, así como la belleza natural de los volcanes y el lago de Atitlán. ¡Uno de mis mejores recuerdos fue cuando un grupo de seminaristas jugamos baloncesto contra un grupo local de guatemaltecos y les ganamos por mucho! (Tuvimos una injusta ventaja, nuestra estatura.)

Todos los estudiantes de Escuelas Secundaria e Intermedia (Grados 7-12) están invitados a un paseo a Kings Dominion el 26 de Julio, además pueden venir con toda la familia. Envíe un correo electrónico a BPaczak@CathedralSTM.org o complete este formulario para obtener más detalles. ¡Se necesitan acompañantes!
