In fact, if we do not put all of our eggs into that basket, then we will be in trouble! Saint Paul reminds us that God takes care of those who love Him: "To them that love God all things work together unto good" (Rom 8:28). God will not fail us, if we love Him with everything we have and are. Jesus articulates this important truth in the gospel reading in the strongest possible terms with the two parables of the treasure hidden in the field and the pearl of great price. In both cases, the man who found what he was looking for - the treasure or the pearl, symbolizing the Kingdom of Heaven - went, sold everything he had, and bought that treasure.

But upon finding it, he is so overjoyed that he takes every measure to secure its possession. The man searching for good pearls is like someone diligently seeking the truth, which he saves like pearls. Upon finding Truth Himself (that is, our Lord, who brings the Kingdom of Heaven to earth in His very Person), his search is over. He sells everything, even his entire pearl collection, for the Pearl that outshines them all.

Reflecting on God's Gifts

“We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.”
Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

Summer Gleaning "Gleaning" is the traditional biblical practice of gathering crops that would otherwise be left in the fields to rot, or be plowed under after harvest. ### Reflecting More on: Catholic Life

Why do priests kiss the altar at the start of Mass?

Answer:

Our churches and chapels are filled with symbols. We might think of the more common symbols (like the crucifix, statues, stained-glass windows, vestment color and altar cloths) as well as major symbols (such as the paschal candle and the baptismal font). But there are some things that we can take for granted in our sacred spaces, because unfortunately, they seem to just be part of the building, including three of the main symbols of our liturgy: the ambo (lectern), the chair for the priest celebrant, and the altar.

These three objects are placed in a specially designated area called the sanctuary. They are the places where the Word of God is proclaimed, where the priest prays and presides at the celebration, and where the bread and wine are offered by the priest during the Eucharistic Prayer. Although each of these objects is sacred because of the role they play in our worship, the altar holds a special place. In a document containing the rules and instructions for the Mass — the “General Instruction of the Roman Missal” — we read: “The altar on which the Sacrifice of the Cross is made present under sacramental signs is also the table of the Lord to which the People of God is called together to participate in the Mass, as well as the center of the thanksgiving that is accomplished throughout the Eucharist” (no. 296).

One of the ways that we recognize the importance of the altar is when the priest and deacon kiss the altar at the beginning of Mass. Kissing is an ancient act of devotion. Remember, we also kiss the cross on Good Friday, and the deacon or priest kisses the “Book of the Gospels” after the Gospel is proclaimed. This act of devotion reminds us that the altar is a symbol of Jesus, the “living stone” (see 1 Peter 2:4), the foundation stone of our faith. It is a symbol gesture, but it is a powerful reminder of the One on whom our faith is built and in whose name we gather as the “household of faith” (see Galatians 6:10).
