From Our Rector

Summer is often a time of new beginnings: of graduations, weddings, new jobs, new assignments and yes, Ordinations! With each new experience we have the ability to grow more into our truer selves.

The pursuit of a life well-lived is begun early. My dear parishioners, but especially all the graduates in our parish, I'd like to remind you that your journey is not just one of exams, sporting contests or the pursuit of the perfect job. "Holiness is a journey; holiness cannot be bought. It can't be sold. It cannot be given away. Holiness is a journey to God's presence that I must make: no one else can do it in my name." (Pope Francis) When we describe someone as "holy," sometimes we may look at them as either a) beyond anything we could ever be – like the Pope, or b) or cynically as "holier than thou" – judgmental, uncool, or cold. But my friends, Pope Francis reminds us, sinners that we are, that we are all called to holiness because we have been saved by our faith, "justified," as St. Paul says. Buoyed by hope "of encountering Jesus," we are given God's support (grace), to be courageous – to do what is right.

Holiness doesn't happen overnight and it's oftentimes met with obstacles both personal and societal. But you can make a start. Francis gives us one such example: "if you're able to not speak ill of another, you're on the right path to becoming saintly. 'I want to criticize a neighbor, a coworker: bite your tongue a bit. The tongue will swell a bit, but your spirit will be holier on this journey. Do not go back, but always moving forward.'" When we start with one step, we build a foundation to a way of life: of seeing Christ in others and mirroring that image back to them. Then, we become little by little holy women and men of God.

Serve God first, as Thomas More did. Live for others and you will know not only holiness, but joy, love, and peace. My prayer for all of us today is that we, like Paul, will be able to say, "hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us."

God Bless, Fr. Posey

I'd like to welcome our new deacon, Michael Nugent, who will join us on June 15. Michael is currently studying at the North American Pontifical College in Rome. Please make an effort to introduce yourself when you see him at Mass or around campus.
