From Our Deacon

Deacon Nypaver will be offering his thoughts on the readings during his summer stay with us. We are blessed to have him with us. — Fr. Posey

“The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” (MT 9:37)

We all probably know what it is like to have a lot of work in front of us, and it seems there is just never enough time in a day to get it all done. Maybe help or resources are lacking. Maybe it's the time of year and things are coming in at once from all sides. Whatever the case, there is so much to do and so little time to do it.

That must be how our Lord felt when He looked up at the crowds following Him, which we hear in this Sunday's reading from Saint Matthew's Gospel. Each soul is precious in God's eyes. Each soul is worth saving.

As a newly ordained transitional deacon, it is my joy to be serving here at the Cathedral parish of Saint Thomas More. Having met some of you since my arrival last week, I feel very welcome by your kindness.

The work of saving souls is not limited to priests, deacons, and consecrated religious. All of us are called to bring Christ to others.

Before entering seminary, I got involved with the Legion of Mary. We would go knocking door to door inviting people to come to Mass. Some of the people were not interested, but others were.

At times, it seemed like our work had little effect. At other times, someone who had been away from the Church would come back, or a child would be brought for baptism, all because we went door to door. We may not always see the fruits of our labors, but if we follow Christ and work to bring Him to others according to our vocation and state in life, He will provide the growth.

I look forward to meeting you all and getting to know you over the summer and as I finish my final year of priestly formation at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary. Please know of my prayers, and keep me in yours.

In Jesus, Through Mary.

Deacon Sean Nypaver

Stewardship

The Second Collection this week is for our Maintenance Fund. We are still collecting towards the $75,000 cost of replacing the Cathedral's electrical panel, which dates from 1961. This is a significant and necessary expenditure for our parish to ensure a safe and comfortable environment in which to worship. Your generosity is appreciated.

Thank you for your support. Please scan the QR code or go to <https://membership.faithdirect.net/VA326>

The Second Collection next week will be for our Parish Charities. Thank you for your kindness.

Are you looking to get more involved at the Cathedral? You can find MORE by volunteering at the Cathedral. With additional Masses on our schedule during construction, we are in need of more assistance as Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, Sacristans, and ushers. To avoid overburdening our current volunteers, please consider sharing your time in service to others. We will work with you to get you trained as soon as possible. Thank you for your commitment to our parish.

View opportunities at www.cathedralstm.org or contact the Office at 703-525-1300.

Join the Flock! Don't miss important announcements, mass reminders and faith resources from Flocknote, our parish email provider. Now more than ever, we need our parish family. ## Reflecting on God's Gifts

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" Matthew 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent." Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second -- invite the Lord into your heart.

Join Partners in Prayer! Offer to pray for special intentions a few minutes daily. Right now we can all use prayers! To learn more about becoming a PIP or to request a prayer, go to: <https://bit.ly/32CPYgn>

Reflecting More on: Thomas More

Sir Thomas More was a humanist and statesman in Tudor England. He is still widely known today as the author of Utopia. More was a prolific writer and theologian. A true martyr of the Church, he was beatified by Pope Leo XIII in 1886, and canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 19, 1935.

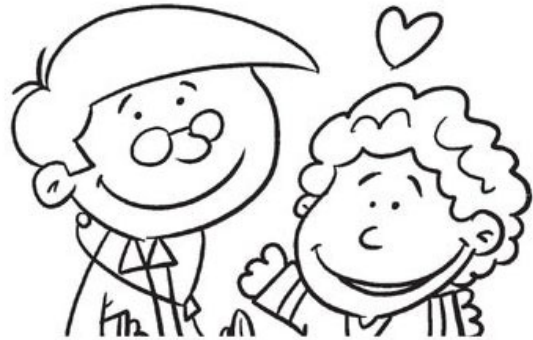

More was born in London in 1478, the son of Sir John More, a lawyer and judge. He attended Oxford where he studied Latin and Greek, as well as formal logic. He left Oxford in 1494 to train as a lawyer in London. After attaining the Bar, he spent time discerning a call to the priesthood. Though attracted to the Franciscan order More remained a lay Christian, continuing to fast, pray, and wear a hair shirt. He was married twice, the loving father of three daughters, a stepdaughter by his second marriage, and one son. More wrote many letters to his children when he was away on business and his daughters were known for their academic abilities, as they received the same education as his son, an anomaly at the time.

More rose to the Privy Council in 1514. He became the good friend and advisor to Henry VIII, and in 1521 he was knighted. In 1529 he was made Lord Chancellor of England. However, this appointment was the beginning of the end for the saint. He could not support the break with the Church in Rome when Henry failed to receive from the Pope the annulment of his first marriage to Katherine of Aragon to wed Anne Boleyn. More resigned as Lord Chancellor and continued to refuse to accept Henry as the head of the Church in England. Eventually he was imprisoned, tried, and sentenced to a traitor's death, to be hanged, drawn, and quartered. Henry commuted the sentence of his former friend to the more 'humane' beheading. More was executed at Tower Hill, on July 6, 1535, before his death he famously proclaimed that he was "the king's good servant, but God's first."

GOSPEL

Jesus told his 12 apostles to heal the sick. Today doctors work with God, just like the apostles did years ago. In hospitals you can see the hand of God at work. Many times doctors are able to find medicines and treatments to cure people of their illnesses. Sometimes even very sick people are healed. God sent these medicines and doctors to heal. By praying for the sick, you can help, too.

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, please teach us to love, care for, and cure the sick.

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET Join the STM Divine Mercy Group to pray the Chaplet on weekdays after the conclusion of the 12:05pm Daily Mass. Please remember that Burke Hall must be vacated by 1:00pm to allow for construction to resume. Thank you.

Join us to pray the Rosary! All are invited to gather daily at 11:40am, before the 12:05pm Mass. We also have a special Pro Life Rosary the third Saturday of every month after the 9:00am Mass. Our Knights also host a rosary every third Sunday at 6:30pm before the 7:00pm Mass.

Petición Cuaresmal del Obispo de 2023 Esta petición nos ofrece la oportunidad de unirnos como familia católica para apoyar los programas, ministerios y servicios de ayuda a decenas de miles de personas. Después de reflexionar sobre las bendiciones recibidas de Dios, piensen en hacer una promesa de contribución a la Petición Cuaresmal Del Obispo. Pueden esa promesa al llenar la tarjeta distribuida durante la Misa, enviar la tarjeta por correo postal, hacer la promesa en línea en www.arlingtondiocese.org/BLA o escanear el código QR indicado continuación para hacer una ofrenda.
