From Our Rector

Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart.
(1 Samuel 16:7)

The famous actor, Al Pacino, has inhabited many different persona in his career. His Oscar-winning performance saw him portray an embittered Army veteran. In one scene his character, despondent and despairing decides to end his life. His young helper, played by Chris O'Donnell, pleads with him: "So you [messed up] ... everybody does ... get on with your life." Pacino's character at his lowest moment screams a now well-known line: "What life? I'm in the dark here!" It is the ultimate moment of vulnerability leading to eventual redemption for this character. Literally blinded by his own arrogance and stupid actions, this man finally acknowledges what he has been fighting all along: his need for forgiveness, for someone to look past the bluster to see him. His pride blinded him to this need for others, eventually alienating friends and family alike.

How often have we allowed our pride, our hurt, our ego to blind us? How often in disagreements with loved ones, friends or co-workers have we seen only what we want to see: the wrong in the other person. We cloak ourselves with the assurance that we are right and that only we can see the truth. This was the great sin of the Pharisees: so confident that only they had the light of truth that they could not see it standing in front of them. Instead, they made excuses to snuff the light: Christ "worked" on the Sabbath; he consorted with undesirables etc. What are your excuses for keeping the light of Christ from your life?

If we truly believe Jesus is the Christ, we will no longer live in the dark, blinded by our sins. Our belief, lending us humility, will allow us to acknowledge our own need for His mercy and the mercy of others.

We sing together, "Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts. Shine through the darkness. Christ, be our light! Shine in your church gathered today." Believe that you can be that light to others, offering the shelter and sustenance of faith and fellowship.

God Bless. Fr. Posey

Reflecting on God's Gifts

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart."

1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent and treasure here on earth.

More on.... Saint Joseph

On March 19th, we celebrate the holiness in the midst of unpredictable fatherhood. We first meet Joseph when he discovers his betrothed is pregnant...and not by him! St. Joseph does not know who the father is (yet), but he knows the punishment for adultery is death. He decides to divorce Mary quietly, and thus save her life. When an angel appears to reveal that Mary is pregnant by the Holy Spirit, St. Joseph trusts his dream and marries her. As a new foster father, Joseph must help his wife give birth in a stable. Later, he needs to escape the threats to his son's life by immigrating with his family to a foreign land. We know that St. Joseph is faithful, brave, and willing to sacrifice for those he loves. On the solemnity of St. Joseph, we don't merely celebrate a carpenter. We celebrate a hero!

Se pueden ofrecer misas para celebrar bautismos, cumpleaños, aniversarios, confirmaciones, intenciones especiales y / o para conmemorar el aniversario de la muerte de un ser querido. # A Message from Father Posey

My Dear Friends in Christ,

I can't emphasize enough the importance of the work that Bishop Burbidge leads in our diocese, along with his staff who assists him. There are more than 40 programs that require funding. Highlights include:

Vocations Awareness, Seminarian Education, and the Permanent Diaconate Programs

- These programs total nearly $3 million
- Father Dansereau and I, as well as our deacons, benefited from this program
- Deacon Nugent from our parish will be ordained in June, God willing.

Catholic Schools, Religious Education, Youth & Young Adult Ministries

- These programs total over $4 million.
- Over 600 students are enrolled in our School & Religious Education Program
- Each year, many teens from our parish participate in WorkCamp!
- Our Young Adult Group hosts many events throughout the year!

INOVA Hospital Ministry, our Dominican Republic Mission and other evangelization efforts

- This totals nearly $800,000.
- I was one of those missionaries in Bánica who benefitted from BLA support!
- Our Cathedral clergy regularly minister to patients at area hospitals

Support of the Bishop's Lenten Appeal is so essential. Please use the QR code below to make a pledge. By all of us joining together as a diocesan family, we can ensure this work of God. Bless you all and let us pray for one another during this Lenten Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
