From Our Rector

Today we meet again the familiar image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. We see Christ as not only the loving caretaker, but the very vehicle to salvation. He is at once guide and "gate." Through a truly personal relationship with Him we are led to our salvation. How do we attain and nurture this relationship? How do we nurture any relationship that is important to us?

By being present. By spending time with the other person. We choose our friends because we have things in common; we enjoy their company; we can rely upon them. A real and lasting relationship is built upon shared experiences. In today's world this is becoming increasingly more difficult.

It is no secret that I am rather fond of gadgets, especially those with an Apple embossed on them. And while they can make my life easier, they can also pull me away from the here and now. I am no different than many of us: it's easy to get lost in a Facebook feed or the latest newspaper articles. Yet there is no substitute for personal presence, in actually speaking with a long-lost friend instead of "liking" a recent post. Prayer itself takes on a different focus when offered with others.

In writing this reflection, I want to challenge you to try a day, or even a few hours, to devote yourselves to some "electronics-free" time. Encourage family members to do the same. Spend that time focused on those people right in front of you. Take some of that time to get to know our Good Shepherd or to know him more deeply. Bring your cares to him; allow yourself to get to know him just as well as he knows you. Start the conversation.

Today is World Prayer Day for vocations. Please ask the Lord to open the ears and hearts to those men and women to "hear his voice" in discernment. So too, please pray for all priests, sisters, brothers, and deacons that they may continue to live out their calling with kindness, mercy, and compassion.

Today is also Mother's Day; I wish God's blessing on all our mothers, and those who are like mothers to us. I have said before that this day can be one of mixed emotions. Yet, whatever your relationship is, whatever emotions may live in your heart, I ask you to pray for grace; for strength; for kindness; perhaps even forgiveness. And know that you are known and loved by the Good Shepherd.

God Bless. Fr. Posey

Happy Mother's Day to our moms here, in heaven, and those who are like moms to us. May their love and support guide us.

A "woman by her very nature is maternal – for every woman, whether married or unmarried, is called upon to be a biological, psychological, or spiritual mother — she knows intuitively that to give, to nurture, to care for others, to suffer with and for them — for maternity implies suffering — is infinitely more valuable in God's sight than to conquer nations and fly to the moon."

Alice von Hildebrand

At All Masses this Weekend: Light a candle for your mom (or anyone who has been/is like a mom to you). We will have candles at the Cathedral entrances. Write the name of your loved one on the sticker. Additional directions will be given at Mass. Please take one candle per family. Happy Mother's Day!

Pancake Breakfast returns next Sunday, May 15, after all morning Masses. Come, meet your fellow parishioners, get to know them and have amazing food at the same time! We look forward to seeing you then.

Congratulations to our newest Eagle Scouts: Pearson Frank, Danny Grasmeyer, and Jack Vu. This is a huge accomplishment and we, as a community are very proud of them.
